WHAT ENCOMPASSES FOOD PROVISION?

Food provision is defined as the满足群众对美好生活的向往，challenges of mass urbanization, and can alter the balance of ecosystems and human well-being. This high-protein seafood that supports a healthy diet.

Wild-caught fisheries and aquaculture are essential components of global food security. Sustainable management practices can help ensure the continued provision of seafood. Investing in our future involves understanding and addressing the impacts of human activity on the ocean, and supporting resilient ecosystems.