For each visitor to www.orovellhealth.com, our web server automatically recognizes and collects around domain names, but not email addresses. This helps us monitor pages out users visit and what information they download, such as survey information and site registration. The information we collect is used only for internal purposes to improve our web content, to optimize your web experience and, in some cases, to understand the usage and/or speed of asked pages. We will disclose information we have collected only when legally required to do so, at the request of governmental authorities conducting an investigation, to verify or enforce compliance with the policies governing our website and applicable laws or to protect against misuse or unauthorized use of our website.

COOKIES

We use cookies to record past activity on our website. An effort is provided below and further details upon your return to us at www.orovellhealth.com.
We also utilize certain third-party services based on your browser type, language or other settings to optimize your site experience.

AD SERVERS

We do not permit sales or have special relationship with any ad server or content provider. From time to time, we may use user data for new, unanticipated areas not previously disclosed in our privacy policy. If this is the case, or if our information practices change, we will notify you of any changes before we use your data. You can opt out of our website by using the privacy options on the site, if you are concerned about how your information is being used.

SECURITY

When providing your personal information online, such as financial information to make a donation, we will redirect you to a secure server and notify you of this method through a pop-up screen. Your card and information is never stored.

CHILDREN’S GUIDELINES

None of the websites covered by this policy knowingly collect identifiable personal information from children under age 13. If we discover that a person under the age of 13 has provided or with any personally identifiable information, we will delete that information from our systems. We are unable to reply to information requests from children under the age of 13 if not identified. A parent or guardian must disclose any requests for information from children under the age of 13 to us before we process requests or receive children when they review the Internet.

If you feel that this site is not following its stated privacy policy, please contact us by email or phone: Our policy is subject to change. For more information, please contact our Data Protection Officer at info@orovellhealth.com.
