For each visitor to www.tysonhealthindex.org, our web server automatically recognizes and collects around domain names, but not e-mail addresses. This helps us to publish our site's content and to monitor our server load. We do not track your computer or Internet activity. If you provide an e-mail address or complete a form on our site, we will use your e-mail address to let you know how your information is being used, unless you opted out of receiving such communications. We will never share your personal information with any third parties.

Cookies

We use cookies to record past activity on our websites and to provide improved content, faster access, and your personalized site experience.

Ad Servers

We do not solicit nor host any special relationships with any ad server company. From time to time, we may use user data for new, unattributed, ad placements. If this is the case, if you opt-in to receive our cookies, we will notify you of these changes as you use your data. If you opt-out of receiving cookies, we will notify you of these changes as you use your data.

Security

When providing your sensitive information online, such as financial information to make a donation, we will redirect you to a secure server and notify you of this method through a pop-up screen. Your credit card information is never stored.

Children’s Guidelines

None of the websites covered by this policy intentionally collect, identify, or link to personal information from children under age 13. If we discover that a person under the age of 13 has provided us with any personally identifiable information, we will delete that information from our systems. We are unable to reply to information requests from children under the age of 13. If identified, we may provide guardians or custodians any requests for information from children under the age of 13. If you wish to protect the privacy of your children, we encourage parents to supervise internet usage when they know the internet.

If you feel that the site is not following its stated privacy policy, please contact us by e-mail or phone at the following address or phone number:
