For each visitor to www.cornerstonehealth.org, our web server automatically recognizes and collects around domain names, but not e-mail addresses. This helps us with page counts and what information they purchase, such as survey information and site registration. The information we collect is used only for internal audit to improve our web content. It optimizes your web experience and, in some cases, enforces the cornerstoenhealth.org terms of use of user-supplied data. We will disclose information we have collected only when legally required to do so or at the request of governmental authorities conducting an investigation; to verify or enforce compliance with the policies governing our website and applicable laws or to protect against misuse or unauthorized use of our website.

COOKIES
We use cookies to record past activity on our website. In an effort to provide better and faster service, upon your return visit to www.cornerstonehealth.org, we also remember certain web content items based on your browser type, language or other settings to expedite your site visit.

AD SERVERS
We do not engage with or have special relationships with any ad server companies. From time to time, we may use user data for new, unanticipated areas not previously disclosed in our privacy policy. If this is the case, or if we change our practice on use of data, we provide you the opportunity to opt-out and post the new policy to the web page. If you are concerned about how your information is being used, please check the page periodically. At any time, you may request your information from being used for unenrolled future purposes by a mailing, writing or writing as

SECURITY
When providing your sensitive information online, such as financial information, to make a donation, we will redirect you to a secure server and notify you of this method through a pop-up screen. Your credit card information is never shared.

CHILDREN’S GUIDELINES
None of the websites covered by this policy knowingly collect identifies personal information from children under age 13. If you discover that a person under the age of 13 has provided us with personally identifiable information, we will delete that information from our systems. We are unable to reply to information requests from children under the age of 13 if identified. A parent or guardian must provide any requests for information from children under the age of 13 in the same way. We encourage parents to supervise children when they access the Internet.

If you feel that this site is not following its stated privacy policy, please contact us by e-mail or phone at the DMS’s Customer Service Department at info@cornerstonehealth.org.
