For each visitor to www.gocheehealth.com, our web server automatically recognizes and collects around domain names, but not e-mail addresses. This helps us which pages out user data and what information they view. Such as survey information and/or site registration. The information we collect is used only for internal use to improve our web content, to optimize your web experience and, in some cases, to maintain the content and/or speed of loaded pages. We will disclose information we have collected only when legally required to do so, at the request of governmental authorities conducting an investigation, to verify or enforce compliance with the policies governing our website and applicable laws or to protect against misuse or unauthorized use of our websites.

COOKIES

We use cookies to record past activity on our websites. In an effort to provide better and faster service, upon your return to one of www.gocheehealth.com. We also evaluate certain web content based on your browser type, language or other settings to optimize your site experience.

AD SERVERS

We do not partner with or have special relationships with any ad server companies. From time to time, we may use user data for new, unallocated uses not previously disclosed in our privacy policy. If this is the case, if we make changes in our policies, we will notify any of these changes before we use your data, provide you the opportunity to opt-out, and post the new policy to this web page. If you have concerns about how your information is being used, please check the page periodically. At any time, you may prevent your information from being used for third-party purposes by a mailing, writing or writing at.

SECURITY

When providing your sensitive information online, such as financial information to make a donation, we will redirect you to a secure server and notify you of this method through a pop-up screen. Your credit card information is never stored.

CHILDREN’S GUIDELINES

None of the websites covered by this policy knowingly collect identifiable personal information from children under age 13. If we discover that a person under the age of 13 has provided us with any personally identifiable information, we will delete that information from our servers. We are unable to reply to any information requests from children under the age of 13. If it is identified, a parent or guardian must provide any requests for information from children under the age of 13. We encourage parents to supervise children when they browse the Internet.
