For each visit to www.childrenshealthindex.org, our web server automatically recognizes and collects around domain names, but not email addresses. This helps us with page views and other data about what information they viewed, such as survey information and site registration. The information we collect is used only for internal indices to improve our web content, to optimize your web experience and to maintain the number of visits/audience of joined pages. We will disclose information we have collected only when legally required to do so or at the request of governmental authorities conducting an investigation, to verify or enforce compliance with the policies governing our website and applicable laws or to protect against misuse or unauthorized use of our websites.

COOKIES

We use cookies to record past activity on our website. If you do not want to accept cookies, you can disable them found at www.childrenshealthindex.org. We also accept cookies certain web sites based on your browser type, language or other settings to improve your site experience.

AD SERVERS

We do not partner with or have special relationships with any ad server companies. From time to time, we may use user data for new, untested purposes not previously disclosed in our privacy policy. If this is the case, or if new information practices change, we will notify you of any changes before we use your data. We provide you the opportunity to opt-out of the new policy by the web page. If you are concerned about how your information is being used, please check the page particularly. At any time, you may request your information be removed for unapproved future purposes by contacting us in writing or calling us.

SECURITY

When providing your sensitive information online, such as financial information to make a donation, we will redirect you to a secure server and notify you of this method through a pop-up screen. Your credit card information is never stored.

CHILDREN’S GUIDELINES

None of the websites covered by this policy knowingly collect, identify, or contact information from children under age 13. If, however, we discover that a person under the age of 13 has provided us with any personally identifiable information, we will delete that information from our systems. We are unable to reply to information requests from children under the age of 13. If it is identified, we cannot guarantee that information is not disclosed to third parties. If you have any questions about the privacy of information from children under the age of 13, if it is collected, we encourage parents to monitor their children's internet when they browse the Internet.

If you feel that this site is not following its stated privacy policy, please contact us by email or phone at The SMD's Compliance on Ethical Business Practices at info@childrenshealthindex.org.
